

WHAT A SHAME!

Sue and Andy have been particularly good, supporting the Trulli Pizza Van on their forecourt. Not only do they have to stop selling petrol from 2.30pm each afternoon for safety reasons but they also have to stay open longer on those Wednesdays when the Pizza's are there. But at this stage they have decided to call it a day as the community has not supported them during the extended hours.

So, the Pizza people will have to find a new place to park their van. We did try the Council, but that was no go. Either for the grass behind the Centre or the Car Park beside the Centre. The argument was that they could not be seen to be favouring one food truck over another. The Foodies Market was different because it is an event and every type of food had an equal opportunity to sell their food.

So if you have a front yard which you are willing to have the Pizza van in then you can phone Trulli's on – 5664 7397 or, if you want you could email them:- rhia@trullipizzeria.com.au. Of course, the ideal place for them to go would be the Caravan Park, but this would have to be negotiated with the owner.

We moved back to Stage 3 restrictions, but at least we are better off than Melbourne who are in Stage 4 which includes a curfew. Although we have the Centre closed, and we cannot visit other people's homes, we do have to wear a mask when outside our home and most people are wearing masks – but not all! Several people have been seen not wearing a mask and by their attitude they had no intention of wearing one. No one likes wearing a mask, but I think we are going to have to get used to it for quite some time yet.

As you are aware, due to COVID-19 the 2020 Sandy Point Easter Art Show was postponed and we were hoping to hold it in November over the Melbourne Cup Weekend. Unfortunately, due to the pandemic, we have had to cancel the Art Show for this year. After taking into consideration the uncertainty of what lies ahead and the health and well-being of all persons connected to the Art Show, whether it is Artists, viewing public, local community or volunteers it has been decided to cancel the 2020 Art Sandy Point Art Show. The good news is that we are planning 2021 Sandy Point Easter Art Show. We are hoping to have better luck next year, either at Easter or maybe the Melbourne Cup weekend. Perhaps a case of second time lucky?
